These Terms, together with the Club Rules, the Digital Rules and the following completed documents:

- (b) your Payment Authority Form; and

If you are a corporate member, you will also have to produce proof of your corporate identity to us. If you fail to produce this corporate identity to us we may ask you to reimburse us for any discounts you have received when joining. Extra or different terms (“Corporate Terms”) might apply to you because of the corporate membership agreement between us and your employer. Corporate Terms form part of the Agreement between us, as well as the documents listed in paragraph 1.1 above. If there are any differences between any part of these Terms and the Corporate Terms, the relevant terms of the Corporate Terms will take priority. The company which is allowing you to benefit from corporate membership is responsible for making you aware of any Corporate Terms that apply.

2. YOUR TYPE OF MEMBERSHIP, YOUR HOME CLUB AND OTHER CLUBS

You are becoming a member of Virgin Active under the type of membership (“Membership Type”) and at the club (“Home Club”) stated in your Membership Application Form.

- (b) book and attend group exercise classes or club visits with us using your MyLocker account (a “Club Visit”). - (b) at the time and in the location where you have booked your Club Visit; and
- (c) if you have received a Club Visit confirmation, or have been granted access by our Reception staff.

We reserve the right to withdraw this membership type by giving you at least 14 days’ notice by updating your membership portal.

- (b) you have completed a satisfactory Health Check Questionnaire and, if applicable, provided any other medical details of your health and fitness to our satisfaction; and
- (c) we have received the required payments set out in your Membership Application Form.

You will be able to book Club Visits or access the Digital Content from your Membership Start Date.

4. HOW LONG WILL YOUR MEMBERSHIP LAST?

4.1 Commitment Periods

Your Commitment Periods include an Initial Commitment Period and Ongoing Commitment Periods. You are committed to a minimum initial period of membership of four weeks from the start of the first fortnightly billing period following your Membership Start Date set out in your Membership Application Form (“Initial Commitment Period”) such that:

- (a) if your Membership Start Date is the first day of a fortnightly billing period, the period of four weeks from your Membership Start Date; or
- (b) if your Membership Start Date is on any other day than the first day of a fortnightly billing period, the period including the rest of that fortnightly billing period plus four weeks from the first day of the next fortnightly billing period.

On completion of your Initial Commitment Period on the end date set out in your Membership Application Form, your membership will automatically renew for further two week Commitment Periods (“Ongoing Commitment Periods”) unless your membership is terminated in accordance with paragraph 8 or you provide us with notice that you wish for your membership to end on the expiry of the Initial Commitment Period which we must receive at least 3 days prior to the end of your Initial Commitment Period. Each Ongoing Commitment Period will begin on the first day after your previous Ongoing Commitment Period ends.

4.2 Can you suspend or “freeze” your membership?

If you wish to suspend or “freeze” your membership you may notify us of your request in writing or by completing a Change of Circumstances Request Form. You will also have to pay the non-refundable Freeze Fee set out in your Home Club price list current at the time you freeze your membership. Your Home Club receptionist will be able to confirm to you the periods of freeze available during your membership. You can freeze your membership for one or more consecutive whole fortnightly billing periods (i.e. a minimum of 2 weeks) but your membership cannot be frozen for only a part of any fortnightly billing period (the "Freeze Period"). If you freeze your membership during the Initial Commitment Period, your Initial Commitment Period and the Initial Commitment Period end date set out in your Membership Application Form will be extended by the Freeze Period.

You can notify us at any time that you would like to freeze your membership but your Home Club must receive your notice at least 3 days (i.e. by close of business Sunday) prior to the start of the first fortnightly billing period you wish to freeze. You will not be able to use any Club while your membership is frozen.

4.3 What happens if you change your mind?

You may notify us by completing a Break Up Form that you wish to cancel your membership within 7 calendar days from the date that you sign these Terms ("Cooling Off Period"). If you do so, we will refund your Total Upfront Payment and any Membership Dues which you have paid to us after you return your Membership Card, Wellness Key, gifts and any other documentation which we have provided to you upon joining. If you have used your membership during the Cooling Off Period, we will refund those amounts set out above, less the applicable Guest Fee for each visit, the fees for any personal training or other Club services you have received and a reasonable administration charge.

5. MEMBERSHIP DUES AND FEES

5.1 Digital Membership Dues

Your Membership Dues are due for the whole of each fortnightly billing period even if your membership is terminated during that fortnightly billing period (unless you have terminated under paragraph 8.2(a)). We will give you at least 14 days' notice of any change and the date from which the change will apply by emailing you at the email address you have provided to us, by notifying you via your member portal at virginactive.com.au or by writing to you.

If you do not wish to accept an increase in your Membership Dues you may terminate your membership in accordance with paragraph 8.1. If you do not terminate your membership you will be required to pay any revised Membership Dues from the date from which the change becomes effective and your direct debit payments or credit card payments will be amended accordingly.

All Membership Dues include goods and services tax (GST). We reserve the right to change your Membership Dues in line with any government GST rate changes, even if you are in your Initial Commitment Period.

5.3 Club Visit

Club Visit credits can only be redeemed against certain class or activity types. Your MyLocker account will show the classes and activities that are available to book for your credit type. No refunds will be provided if you book a class or activity that is less expensive than your original Club Visit.

7.2 Facilities

We may need to adjust the availability of certain facilities on a temporary basis including for the purposes of cleaning, improvement work, repairs, upgrades, maintenance, special functions and holidays. This may result in the temporary closure of some facilities.

8. HOW CAN YOUR MEMBERSHIP BE TERMINATED?

8.1 Termination by you after the Initial Commitment Period

After the Initial Commitment Period you may give us notice to terminate your membership by completing a Break Up Form which we must receive at least 3 days (i.e. by close of business Sunday) prior to the date of the fortnightly billing period that you wish to stop the renewal of your membership for fortnightly Ongoing Commitment Periods.

8.2 Reasons for ending your membership early

- (a) If you wish to terminate your membership prior to the completion of your Initial Commitment Period you may do so by completing a Break Up Form however your membership dues for the remainder of your Initial Commitment Period will be payable. Your termination will take effect from the first fortnightly direct debit date after we receive your Break Up Form and any membership dues owing.

 - (i) We increase your Membership Dues other than in accordance with paragraph 5.2.

- (ii) We make changes to these Terms, the Digital Content, our Clubs, the Club Rules or the Digital Rules that significantly reduce the benefits of your membership.
- (iii) We breach any terms of this Agreement and fail to rectify that breach within 14 days of you giving us notice to do so.

8.3 Termination by us

We may terminate your membership immediately by emailing or writing to you at the contact addresses we have on our records and by disabling your account:

- (a) If you commit a serious or repeated breach of these Terms, the Club Rules or the Digital Rules.

- (c) If any part of your Membership Dues remains unpaid 28 days after falling due.
- (d) If you provide us with details which you know to be false when applying for membership and these false details may have affected our reasonable decision to grant you membership.

15. LIABILITY

15.1 Recreational Activities

In the course of exercising or engaging in any recreational activities while using the Digital Content or any Club facilities, if you are killed or injured, we will not be liable except to the extent caused by our gross negligence. In this paragraph:

- gross negligence, means as defined in paragraph 15.2 below; and
- recreational activities, means your participation in a sporting activity or a similar leisure time pursuit or your participation in any other activity that involves a significant degree of physical exertion or physical risk and is undertaken for the purposes of recreation, enjoyment or leisure.

Please refer to the warning notice in paragraph 15.2 below which we are required to provide to you if you are in Victoria under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 in relation to this limitation on our liability.

15.2 Warning under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012

In this warning, references to “the supplier” mean us.

Under the Australian Consumer Law (Victoria), several statutory guarantees apply to the supply of certain goods and services. These guarantees mean that the supplier named on this form is required to ensure that the recreational services it supplies to you:

- rendered with due care and skill; and
- are reasonably fit for any purpose which you, either expressly or by implication, make known to the supplier; and
- might reasonably be expected to achieve any result you have made known to the supplier.

Under section 22 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012, the supplier is entitled to ask you to agree that these statutory guarantees do not apply to you. If you sign this form, you will be agreeing that your rights to sue the supplier under the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012 if you are killed or injured because the services provided were not in accordance with these guarantees, are excluded, restricted or modified in the way set out in this form.

NOTE: The change to your rights, as set out in this form, does not apply if your death or injury is due to gross negligence on the supplier's part.

Gross negligence, in relation to an act or omission, means doing the act or omitting to do an act with reckless disregard, with or without consciousness, for the consequences of the act or omission. See regulation 5 of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Regulations 2012 and section 22(3)(b) of the Australian Consumer Law and Fair Trading Act 2012.

15.3 Liability for supply of other services

Without limitation to paragraphs 15.1 and 15.2 and any other terms which are implied into this Agreement; or by statute in relation to the supply of services which cannot be excluded or limited, we will ensure that the services that we provide to you are provided with due care and skill, are fit for the purpose for which they are commonly bought as is reasonable to expect in the circumstances, will correspond in the nature and quality with the services demonstrated to you, and are free from any defect rendering them unfit for the purposes for which our services are commonly acquired. To the extent permitted by law, and again without limiting paragraphs 15.1 and 15.2, unless we have breached these obligations we will not be liable for any death, injury, loss, liability or damage that you may incur as a result of the services provided by us to you.

16. CLUB VISITS

"Club" means any Virgin Active Club in operation by us or any other member of the Virgin Active group from time to time. Subject to our Reciprocal Rights Policy (available at virginactive.com.au or by asking the Receptionist at your Home Club), you may also use the facilities of any other Club in Australia and you will have limited rights to use Virgin Active clubs in other countries in which we operate. We reserve the right to cancel or suspend your reciprocal rights in the event that you fail to comply with our Reciprocal Rights Policy. This benefit is not available to some membership types.

17. OTHER BITS

You must keep us up to date with your contact details by completing a Change of Circumstances Form and giving it to your Home Club if your contact details change. In the event that we do not receive a Change of Circumstances Form from you and your contact details change, notice given by us to the email or other address we have on our records for you will constitute valid notice to you under these Terms.

We may transfer our rights and obligations (or both) under this Agreement, or subcontract our obligations under it, to another organisation without giving you notice and you will continue as a member. If the other organisation fails to provide the same (or equivalent) facilities and services we provided, you may end your membership upon completing a Break Up Form.

All undefined terms used in this document have the meaning set out in the Membership Application Form.

If we fail to enforce any of our rights at any time, for any period and for whatever reason, this will not take away those rights. Also if we fail to notice or act if you break any of the terms of this Agreement, this does not mean that your behaviour is acceptable. If a Court decides that a term of this Agreement is not valid or cannot be enforced, that term will not apply but this will not affect the rest of the Agreement.

This Agreement is subject to the laws of the State where your Home Club is located.
